Suberby Educational and Informative

The trail is a guided walk through the village visiting local shops, craftsmen and people. The guide was a someone who lives in the village. There is no hard press to buy, the focus is educating visitors on rural Indian life. The village is home to Sadhna, an outstanding charity that helps village women earn an independent living. Highly recommended!!

DELWARA
HANDICRAFT EXPERIENCE

Explore and protect India's
Fairtrade clothing industry

WALK

Local guides trained by the NGO Seva Mandir will take you on a tour through the village of Delwara, where many of Sadhna's artisans live. Pass ancient temples and monuments as you visit individual artisans working on stitching or embroidery, before concluding at Sadhna's central production facility.

WORKSHOP

INTERACT

with the assistance of your guide as a translator, meet the women who produce Sadhna's beautiful products and learn how each piece is designed, cut and meticulously checked.

UNDERSTAND

Under the guidance of professionals, try your hand at traditional Rajasthani block printing, stitching and embroidery, and gain an appreciation of the skills possessed by village craftspeople, who have been historically devalued all over India.

SUPPORT

Engaging in the workshop and the products makes our artisans proud of the beautiful things they produce. They hope you will take new knowledge about fair-trade and eco-friendly fashion home and support ethical clothing business the world over, for a brighter future for the whole industry.
